WHEELING, W. VA., JUNE 21, 1882. TATERS at 75 cents a peck are very dear

It is a great pity that the Early Rose is no an earlier riser .- Lowell Courier. It is believed now that Congress will no adjourn before the middle of July. By ng in session two weeks lor would become an August body, which i otherwise utterly out of the question.

Texas Siftings. Tue United States Fish Commission ha recently placed in the rivers of Arkansu and Texas 1,500,000 shad. This statement may be believed. It's not the number o fish they put into a river, but the number they take out, that men lie about .- Bostor Extenensino Chicago dealers have al ready bought and sold next year's when crop several times over. The only "fu they can speculate in is their own It is hardly necessary for anybody to spec ulate about that future. It is a sure thing -Lowell Courier.

THE Republican caucus of the Ho R spresentatives has voted to take up Mr. Kelley's bill to repeal internal revenue taxes, except those relating to distilled and fer mented liquors, tobacco and bank capital The party have decided in other words that it is expedient to repeal the taxes or bank deposits, bank checks, friction match es, patent medicines, perfumery, cosmetic and playing cards, and to do so before Con gress adjourns. The revenue derived from these sources during the fiscal year 1881, is shown in the following table:

.$ 2,916,906 8 2,248,411 2 3,278,586 6 1,813,263 9 ...$10,322,16£ 56

The total receipts of internal revenu for the fiscal year were $135,229 30. The ed reduction is equal to 74 per cent of the receipts of the fiscal year. But the increase of the revenue from natural causes (growth of population, etc..) from 1880 to 1881 was $11,300,000, or rather more than 7½ per cent. Therefore we have ground for anticipating that the total yield, after the proposed reduction is effected, will not s than $135,000,000, but may be

The Ritchie Gazette very justly rebukes the State Journal for its intemperate, unfair article on "Half Breeds." The Republican party of this State cannot stand such attacks from the Journal, and that paper had better "go slow," even if one of its editors in P. M.—Wetzel Messanger.

This is timely. The Journal made a serious mistake in its article. West Virginia is not a "third term" State by a large najority. It was overwhelmingly the other vay in 1880, and has not changed a particle. Boss Cameron's methods, even hough backed by the Administration, do tot commend themselves to the friends of Baine and Garfleid in West Virginia. As setween so-called "Half Breeds" and Stalwarts," the Republican party of West Triglia is overwhelmingly "Half Breed."—WHEELING INTELLORNCER.

We throw a "brick" recently at that sore-caded class of Beanshare.

We three a "brick" recently at that sore-headed class of Republicans who bot the ticket whenever their friends are not non-inated. We made our remarks imper-sonal, but had reference to the bolting faction in Pennsylvania. The Wheeling INTELLIOSCRA, the champion of the sore-headed greedy-for-spoils anti-Republican faction in Pennsylvania, takes exception.— State Journal.

Gazette and Wetzel Messenger took exceptions as well as the Intelligencer. This looks like an attempt to play Hamlet with Ham

The Pennsylvania Republicans, to whom the Journal refers, would not know themselves by any such designation as it at Nor are they so recognized by such Republican papers as the New York Trib ine, the New York Times, New York Post, the Chicago Tribune, the Philadelphia Press, Harpers' Weekly and other prominent Republican papers throughout the country. It is the followers of Cameron who are supposed to represent the very quintessence of the spoil's system in Penn sylvania. Mr. Marshall, who was nomi nated on that ticket for Congressman-at large, and declined, is not supposed to be hungering and thirsting after spoils. Nor are such men as General Moorehead, of Pittsburgh, and a great multitude of the old-time and old-guard Republicans Pittsburgh, who recently took part in the large demonstration in that city, supposed to be after spoils. The Journal has go the wrong saddle on the wrong horse. The Independent Republicans of Pennsylvania include a large array of the early, steadfas and sterling Republicans of that State.

The Democratic party is a party of principle and the principles upon which it is founded are as enduring as the Christian religion itself, for they are essentially the same as the doctrines taught by the founder of that religion. Therefore, if the cause of Democracy is not right the religion in which we have been taught to reverently believe is a delusion and a saure and the Master himself an imposter.—Stubenville Gazetta

This is the strongest statement—strong in the sense of utter and reckless extravagance of language-that we have noticed for a long time in regard to the immutability and infallibility of Democratic principles. It is in accordance however with the injunction contained in John G. Thompson's celebrated secret circular-claim every thing and claim it boldly. We know of no other party that puts forth any such pretensions. Most people believe that there is a about the so-called principles of political parties. The Republican party has always claimed that its early watch words, "free press, free soil and free men" came as near an eternal principle of right as any that was ever embodied in a political platform in this country, and in this opinion we fully concur. We have a distinct recollection. however, that the Democracy did not con-cur in the enunciation of this declaration of principles. Events have converted the world generally to the belief that the Republican party was historically right and the Democratic party historically wrong. We have no idea what principles in par ticular the Gazette refers to. The party has been on both sides of most questions dur ing its history, and it may be that it has expressed at one time or another a principle or two of an enduring and even of a religious character. We know that it has been both a hard and soft money party and a tariff and anti-tariff party, and ar internal improvement and anti-internal improvement party, but we have no defin-ite idea which side of these principles it is that the Gazette relies on as proving the infallibility of the party. We trust that our esteemed neighbor will give us the latest revised schedule of its eternal prin

Pressing Need for the School Master. re over 80,000 persons in West Virginia of 10 years of age and upwards, who canno

are over 80,000 persons in West Virginia, of 10 years of age and upwards, who cannot write. There are many other States that are in the same condition of illiteracy. Some of the census statistics which have just been completed and tabulated are of much interest. Those as to illiteracy are actually startling, and indicate the positive necessity on the part of the States of providing more facilities for the general education of the people, to the extent at least originally contemplated in the establishment of public school systems. In some States bad financial doctrines and management have robbed the poor of this inestimable advantage. In others the scope of the system has been so changed by the private methods and preferences of teachers and school boards that the poor are practically excluded. The, tendency in many places is towards "higher education," to the neglect of the "common school education." While the first is well enough for those to whom time is of little consequence, the second is all-important to those who have no time to spare, and who have to delve and build and do the world's work. There are in the States and Territories of the United States no less than 4,201,392 above the age of twenty-one years who cannot write. Of these 2,050,463 are whites and 2,147,900 are colored. Included in the latter are 300,000 Indians and 100,000 Asialics. The Indians and Asiatics are not citizens and not likely to become such. Deducting these, it is shown that there are many more illiterate white people than black in the country. Of the total number of illiterate persons over 21 years of age, assuming half to be females, which is a quite proper estimate, it leaves almost $2,000,000 adult males, or 20 per cent of the entire voting population, who know nothing about the ballots which they cast execept from heursay. In the last fifteen years much has been adid, and said with troth, about the dense ignorance of the colored voters of the south. But in the mentium en of enough attention has been drawn to the lilliteracy o where popular education is supposed to be more widely diffused than in any other section, the illiterate voters hold the balance of the power. In New York, in Pennsyl voula, in Ohio, in short it may be said in almost every state, the illiterate voters, combined; can decide any political issue.
